p1	1930s	1937-1940x	Employment	722 - Food services and drinking places	Cafe	Waitress	Douglas Cafe	844 Main Street at Prior Street, Vancouver, Canada.	Melitha worked as a waitress in her sister Emile "Millie's Douglas Cafe with sister, Mary; by 1938 a Union shop (HREU Local 28); advertised once as having a "lady cook" and Millie claimed that occupation on her 1940 marriage registration. The cafe location was at the intersection Main and Prior, and of Hogan's Alley and Chinatown. From 1929-1946 advertisements for staff include "All White Help" in their description. The summary records that Millie and another woman were originally partners in the restaurant but that Millie at some point bought out the other woman's 50% share.			abt. 22-	single/married	Union	Close sister relationships: living and working together.
